ALL SEATS RESERVED

SEATS are now on sale for this week and next. Inquire for lost articles at the box office.

Telephone Orders will be held twenty-four hours, except those ordered on the day of performance, when they will be held until 7 o'clock evenings and 1 o'clock matinees. Orders by mail must be accompanied by cash and stamped envelope.

HOW TO SUBSCRIBE

Patrons by applying at the Box Office may have the same seats reserved for them each week as long as they desire, on condition that the tickets are taken regularly one week in advance. Failure to do so simply cancels the privilege and incurs no liability whatever.

Our regular patrons may subscribe for free seats for children between 5 and 15 years, for any matinee, except Monday and Saturday, or when free list is suspended, and will be allowed one child's seat adjoining for each seat paid for.

Children under 5 not admitted under any circumstances.

Service of Ushers

The Management are especially careful that prompt, polite and willing service shall be given by every attache. If the service is not entirely satisfactory it will be a favor to the management to report the case at once. The Superintendent is always within call for this purpose.

If you are disturbed by loud or unnecessary conversation during the performance, please report to the usher.

No employe of the Castle Square Theatre is allowed under any circumstances to accept a fee of any sort, and patrons will confer a favor upon the Management by reporting any infringement of this rule.

Ladies' Room

Letters to the Management

Patrons will confer a favor on the Management by indicating their choice of plays to be produced. Letters on this and other pertinent subjects will receive careful consideration, when signed with full name and address.

Orders for Seats

Out of town patrons are reminded that they must have their orders for tickets executed through the Order and Commission Departments of the American, National and New York and Boston Despatch Companies.

Smoking Room

The Smoking and Men's Lounging Room is down the left corridor from the main entrance. No smoking will be allowed in any other part of the house, or in the lobbies or entrances.

Candy

A Confectionery Counter is located in the orchestra corridor near the subscription ticket window.

Telephone

A public Telephone for the use of patrons will be found in the corridor on the left of the main entrance.

Umbrellas

Umbrellas may be obtained at the Coat Room free of charge by depositing one dollar for their safe return to the Theatre in good order, within fourteen days.

Opera Glasses

Opera Glasses can be hired for any performance on application at the Cloak Room. A nominal fee of five cents is charged.

Physicians

Physicians who are liable to receive telephone calls during a performance may leave their seat numbers at the Box Office, and they will be called promptly to the telephone by the usher.

For advertising space in this program, apply to Charles E. French, 311 Atlantic Avenue.

NEXT WEEK

FIRST PRODUCTION AT THIS THEATRE

The Boston Stage Society announces the first production in this Theatre of the successful play four acts, by Oscar Wilde

Lady Windermere's Fan

A Play About a Good Woman

A FEW EXTRACTS

A cynic is a man who knows the price of everything and the value of nothing.

All men are monsters. The only thing to do is to feed the brutes well.

There is nothing in the world like the devotion of a married woman. It is a thing that no married man knows anything about.

There are only two tragedies in life—not getting what you want and getting it. The last is the worst.

London is full of women who trust their husbands. One can always recognize them, they look so thoroughly unhappy.

She looks like an edition de luxe of a wicked French novel.

Experience is the name a man usually gives to his mistakes.

Women like to find us irretrievably bad and leave us hopelessly good.

Lady Windermere's Fan will be given for the week of December 11 only. Seats for the entire week are now on sale at the box office.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The Safety Curtain will be lowered hereafter in the presence of the audience once during each performance.

In Preparation:

Beerbohm Tree's famous London version of

OLIVER TWIST

The sole acting rights for this city have been secured by the Boston Stage Society and this great Dickens play which is the theatrical sensation of London at the present time will be presented here exactly as it is now running at His Majesty's Theatre, London, where it has played to the full capacity of the Theatre since the opening of the season.

The first performance of the play in America was given a week ago at the Fifth Avenue Theatre in New York. It was a great success. The play is announced there for an indefinite run.

The law-suit which Mr. Tree has brought to restrain its performance in New York will not affect its presentation in Boston, as special permission has been obtained from Mr. Tree for the Boston production.

For Christmas

A THEATRE TICKET BOOK

AS A

CHRISTMAS GIFT

Just now when you are puzzling your brains to think of some novel and interesting Christmas present let us make a suggestion. What could give more genuine pleasure to your friend for the next six months than the gift of a Castle Square Theatre "Ticket Book," entitling the holder to one special seat at every week's performance until the close of the dramatic season on June 2, 1906.

The Castle Square "Ticket Book" is an innovation this year, and a very popular one. No other theatre in the country issues such a book. It is a neatly printed little volum e, about te size of a lady's visiting card. Indeed, it is not unlike a railroad mileage book.

Each book contains a number of coupons, one coupon for each performance of the year. The inside front cover of the Book has stamped upon it the location of the selected seat. On the inside back cover is a number, which number is registered in the purchaser's name at the box office, to identify the Book and aid in its recovery in case of loss.

The holder of the ticket presents the Book to the doorkeeper, who detaches one of the coupons. The holder then shows the cover (which serves as a seat check) to the usher, who takes him to the proper seat and returns the Book.

Castle Square Ticket Books will be issued for any seat in the theatre, and for any day of the week. They are offered at a substantial discount from the regular scale of prices. Each book, if bought for a Christmas gift, will bear only the coupons from January 1 to June 2, a total of 22 coupons. The important saving in price on these Theatre Ticket Books over the same number of tickets bought singly will be seen from this Price List:

TWENTY-TWO (22) COUPON TICKET BOOK, JANUARY 1 TO JUNE 2, 1906, FOR 22 WEEKS' PRODUCTIONS

One Dollar Seat	$20
Seventy-five Cent Seat	15
Fifty Cent Seat	10
Thirty-five Cent Seat	7
Twenty-five Cent Seat	5
Fifteen Cent Seat	3

Remember that the gift of one of these Theatre Ticket Books will be a constant reminder of the generosity of the donor from week to week for the next six months. They are on sale at the Box Office, where a special seat may be selected.
